

Student health center opening at Mountain Middle School

Tele-health medicine will be a large part of the clinic

By Mia Rupani Staff writer

Thursday, July 20, 2017 5:03 AM

A new student-based health center is opening in August at Mountain Middle School. The center will be managed by Pediatric Partners of the Southwest, and a physician will be at the school five days a week.

Durango Herald file

Mountain Middle School and Pediatric Partners of the Southwest have partnered to open a new student-based health center in August.