

Mountain Middle School opens community playground

Project intended to provide more green space for neighborhood

By Mia Rupani Staff writer

Tuesday, July 25, 2017 9:38 PM Updated: Wednesday, July 26, 2017 10:33 AM

Mountain Middle School had a goal of adding more green space to the neighborhood, which previously did not have a park. The school built a new playground that is also open to the community.

Mia Rupani/Durango Herald

Mountain Middle School achieved its long-range goal of adding more green space to the neighborhood with the addition of a playground and community park this summer.